From the Municipal Comr Bangalore city
AJ-C 470/46-47 dated 28-1-47

Requests sanction to the resolution dated 16-1-1947 of the city Municipal Council in regard to the employment of two Gurkha watchmen on Rs 35- each, with the usual dearness allowance for the Cheluvamba Maternity Home, Bpore

1) Submitted for perusal and orders
2) The source for meeting the expenditure has not been pointed out
3) It is also not known if local men on smaller pay ~~are~~ would not meet the requirements

The pay proposed to be given 13/2/47 to each Gurkha watchman is Rs 35/ p.m and for two watchmen it would come to Rs 70 p.m or Rs 840 p.a without the DA which would amount to another 16 × 12 × 2 or 384 or Rs (840 + 384 or 1224 p.a.

This appears to be too costly & ~~too~~ it may be possible to employ local men or perhaps half the pay

WA do well the work entrusted to them, then the question of employing the Dents of further, the financial be thought of further, the financial condition of the Mly by also to be taken into consideration & economy to be observed in expending the M.L funds. Taking these facts into consideration, it seems not desirable to sanction the appointment of Gurkhas on such a high pay as watchmen. It appears, the M.L cases maybe injured that Two local watchmen maybe employed on a pay of Rs 12 + usual D.A. Formerly
